

From Utah.

St. Louis, Thursday, Aug. 18, 1859.
The mail from Salt Lake reached Atchison yesterday, but brought no intelligence of importance.
The Mormons had nominated Captain Hooper for Congress to succeed Bernhisel. Hooper was formerly Secretary of the Territory.
The sales of all the Government mules had been completed. They all brought very large prices.

Conviction of a Counterfeiter.

LANCASTER, Pa., Thursday, Aug. 18, 1859.
Lewis Suter, twice acquitted by the Philadelphia Court, was today convicted at the Quarter Sessions here of passing counterfeit money.

Wise, the Aeronaut.

CINCINNATI, Thursday, Aug. 18, 1859.
Wise, the aeronaut, came down a few miles south of Crawfordville, and arrived at Indianapolis this morning.

The Agate Club.

NEWPORT, Thursday, Aug. 18, 1859.
The Agate Club, from New-Haven, arrived here today. All well.

POLITICAL.

—It is again rumored in Washington that Secretary Floyd will be obliged by illness to resign, and that the Hon. Elias J. Fulkner will be his successor.
—The New-Orleans correspondent of The Charleston Mercury says:
"The division in the two wings of the Democratic party in this State, seems to be daily widening, and there is at present the smallest prospect of any basis upon which they can reconcile existing differences. The State election, which is fixed for November next, will develop the part each has assigned to itself, and will be exhibited in the returns the ballot-box shall furnish. Till then we must be content to hope that wise counsels may prevail."
—Senator Harlan has entered the field in Iowa in earnest. We perceive that he is announced to speak every day (except Sundays) from Aug. 15 to the 28th of the same month.

—The Leon Pioneer, a Democratic newspaper printed in Decatur County, Iowa, has two and a half column articles on "Priececraft, Black Republicanism, and Higher Law," in which the editor speaks of "the Christ-loving and negro-stealing Congressmen," and of the resolutions passed by the Congressional Association, sympathizing with the Oberlin rescuers, as "abominable," and then recommends that Ministers of the Gospel of this kind

"Most with every moderation or toleration, but be very properly damned into the next here-and-there, and if any other means preferred by the people."

He will get an office, says The Burlington Hawk-Eye. Next to catching negroes, abusing ministers pays best.

—One of the most cheering hints of the times, says The Pittsburgh Gazette, is the return of that honest man, the Hon. John A. Gilmer, to the XXXVth Congress, from North Carolina. We saw yesterday a letter from that gentleman to a mutual friend, under date, Greenwood, August 8. He says: "I am re-elected by 2,000 majority over two opponents, one the regular Administration nominee, the other of my own party, bitterly denouncing my Anti-Leocompton vote. Gen. Leach (Opposition) beats Seales 800; we doubt not that Vance is re-elected, and we hope that Shaw is defeated by Mr. Smith. I feel proud at being so nobly sustained by an intelligent Southern constituency for doing my duty in the hour of sectional madness."

—It has been arranged that the two candidates for Governor of Ohio—the Hon. Wm. Dennison and the Hon. B. P. Ranney—will discuss the political topics of the day before the people of that State at the following times and places, viz: At Tiffin, on Tuesday, Sept. 6; at Dayton, on Thursday, Sept. 8; at Chillicothe, on Saturday, Sept. 10; at Zanesville, on Tuesday, Sept. 13; at Cleveland, on Thursday, Sept. 15; at Canton, on Saturday, Sept. 17; at Columbus, on Tuesday, Sept. 20. The Central Committee of the Republican and Democratic parties at these several points are requested to take steps to make this announcement known among the people as extensively as possible, and to select the place and time for holding the meetings.

—The Washington Constitution says:
"It is a fact worthy of notice that, although Mr. Boyd, the Lieutenant Governor elect of Kentucky, did not receive so many votes as Mr. Magoffin, the candidate for Governor, yet the former obtained a much larger majority than the latter. The ignorance of the people, or neglect to give it due consideration, has led to some blunders in the calculations and speculations of politicians about the Kentucky Senatorship."

The above is, no doubt, intended to advance the interests of Mr. Boyd for the Senatorship against Mr. Breckinridge, whom the President and his organ do not love overmuch.

—A correspondent at Lafayette, Ind., is concerned lest the widely spread order of the Sons of Malta should be a Democratic electioneering movement. Let his mind be at rest. The Sons, in this part of the country at least, are utterly indifferent to political questions, the only qualification for membership required is to be a whole man in good standing in society. This established, he will readily find access to the Vale of Mysteries, when he will find that he has very probably been a practical Son of Malta ever since very boyhood, and will instantly recognize the peculiar applicability to his own case of the inside password and the sign of salutation to the Grand Commander. The only member of any lodge whom he will be likely to envy will be the G. R. J. A., or perhaps his first assistant.

—A correspondent of The National Intelligencer recommends that a National Convention of the Waigs of the United States be held on the 4th of July next, at Richmond, Baltimore, or Philadelphia, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the office of President and Vice-President of the United States, or if separate nominations be deemed inexpedient, for the purpose of selecting among the candidates already in the field such as may be most eligible to a majority of the Whig party.

—The Rutherford (Tenn.) Telegraph and several other Whig journals in that State nominate the Hon. John Bell as a candidate for the Presidency, to be supported by the "United Opposition" party in 1860.

—The Morning News, a paper recently established in Richmond, Va., has discarded its political neutrality, and now appears under the editorship of Mr. A. Judson Crane, as the advocate of Mr. Botts's election to the Presidency.

—William Milton Potter announces himself as an independent candidate for Congress in the XXth (Georgia) District. He runs on the reopening of the slave-trade issue. This makes four candidates up for Congress in this District—Crawford, Dem., Douglas, Opp., Bethune and Potter, Ind.

—James H. B. Shackelford is announced as an independent Democratic candidate for Congress in the Vth (Georgia) District, in opposition to John W. H. Underwood, the regular nominee.

—Gov. Chase is announced to address the electors of Medina, Ohio, on the current political issues, on the 27th inst.

—The Democracy of the Vth District of Illinois have called a convention to meet at Springfield on the 28th September to nominate a successor to the late T. L. Harris.

—The Republicans of Iowa have discovered a secret Democratic circular, emanating from Washington, and containing the result of a tabular exhibit of the vote of the State in 1856, the object of which is to show just what counties the Democracy were weakest in, and which could be best colonized. It is then boldly proposed to colonize the out counties with imported Locofoco voters, and for this purpose it appears that authorities in Washington are co-operating with the Democratic State Committee for raising a large corruption fund. The circular is signed by G. Donnellan (not B. Donnelly) of Washington City.

—The Missouri Democrat thus estimates the influence of the recent Southern elections on the Presidential question:

"The result of the Southern elections leaves but two Opposition candidates for the Presidency in the field, Edward Bates, of Missouri, and John Bell, of Tennessee. There is no earthly doubt that if either shall receive the nomination from the Republican convention, he will be elected. We are free to confess that the Tennessee election was a most commendable record. It is perhaps the most successful public man in the United States. He had the manhood to vote against the Kansas-Nebraska bill, and to oppose the entire territorial policy of which that measure was the initiation. Though the leader of the American party in Tennessee, he never joined the order—never allowed a lodge to take an oath—and this fact would not be without its force in a Presidential canvass. He has sacrificed his public career to his convictions—but though broken he has always refused to bend. Take him all in all, John Bell is a very distinguished man, and as honor to Tennessee."

"Edward Bates is a man not of inferior character and antecedents, and of superior abilities. He is, in addition, an earnest, though moderate, opponent of Slavery, and accordingly approaches nearer to the Republican standard than the Tennessee competitor. Throughout the broad South these two men are the only ones that can be named as candidates for the Presidency. Crittenden is buried deeper than if he lay with the Titans beneath the mountains. His Douglas letter last summer capped the climax of his disasters."

"We do not deny that there are other Southern men, such as John M. Porter and Kenneth Rayner, who are conspicuous in their opposition to the National Democracy, but we repeat that of the Southern Opposition only Bates or Bell can be elected to the Presidency. Missouri would vote for Bates, and Tennessee would doubtless vote for Bell, and either would receive a large vote in the electoral college. The two great Southern States either would carry, is a matter of little moment, for the United Free States will govern the result of the election."

"The Washington States is responsible for the subjoined statement:

"A secret circular, or letter, has been prepared and issued, from a self-constituted committee of New-Yorkers to those party leaders who cannot see their way out of the Democratic dilemma. It is still in doubt as to the policy of uniting with the Black Republicans—such men as Wm. C. Rives, Edward Bates, John J. Crittenden, John Bell, Robert C. Winthrop, Edward Everett, and others of that class of less culture and less integrity. This epistle begins by stating the position of the two great parties of the country with the reasons why the representative names above mentioned cannot coalesce with either. This statement is followed by a table, wherein is exhibited the supposed strength of the Democracy and the supposed weakness of the Opposition, and the surplusage remaining. An estimate is then made as to the probable forces, which might be drawn from the ranks of these two grand armies and added to the surplus, which, altogether, shows a respectable strength. 'And now,' says the committee, 'having fairly and fully explained our position, we leave you to make up your mind for yourselves. The object of this letter only remains to be explained.' And the explanation follows. This is it:

"Under present circumstances, goes the document in substance, we are a minority; we are crushed and humiliated between two millionaires. Another general election will exterminate us unless something is done to prevent it. There is but one way to prevent it. That way is by a distinct organization, with an electoral ticket in every district of the Union. We propose, therefore, to call a Convention at Baltimore, to meet early next year, for the purpose of organizing a permanent party. We will give the call a general name—the Opposition. When we have met, we will build a platform full of sound doctrines. We will nominate two men of untarnished records. Then we will submit our chances to the people. In all human likelihood we will carry two States—Maryland and New Jersey. We will then go to the States of Virginia, Tennessee, and North Carolina, and we will build a platform full of sound doctrines. We will nominate two men of untarnished records. Then we will submit our chances to the people. In all human likelihood we will carry two States—Maryland and New Jersey. We will then go to the States of Virginia, Tennessee, and North Carolina, and we will build a platform full of sound doctrines. We will nominate two men of untarnished records.
